Lancashire Capital Management Division

Lancashire Holdings Limited ("Lancashire") is pleased to announce the formation of its Lancashire Capital Management division. The business unit will be led by Simon Fascione, who will also retain his role as Chief Underwriting Officer of Lancashire Insurance Company Limited. Lancashire Capital Management will focus on the management and execution of existing managed premium strategies, in conjunction with the development of future products and structures.

Commenting on the announcement, Richard Brindle, Lancashire Group CEO said: "The creation of Lancashire Capital Management is an exciting and logical step for Lancashire given the ongoing evolution of the third party capital market. We have an established track record in relation to the management of third party capital investments via Sirocco, Accordion and more recently Saltire. This announcement further illustrates our commitment to ensure we are continually exploring all avenues of innovation to meet the complex needs of both our clients and investors. Lancashire Capital Management will enhance the Group's ability to match supply with demand within an industry in transition. "
